

AHC30516 Certificate III in Poultry Production is tailored for the Poultry Sector, & aims to support employees working on farms involved in enterprise production systems

AHC30516

Certificate III in Poultry Production

Key features include:

- Delivery includes an online webinar component, specifically designed to cause minimal disruption to work commitments, while ensuring a quality learning environment.
- The use of Poultry Industry Specialists recognised as experts in the industry.
- A cost effective training option.
- Strong pathways into Certificate IV and Diploma of Agriculture.
- Quality industry training resources.
- A strong focus on sustainable farming practices in an intensive production system.
- Increased employability skills, achieving on-farm efficiencies.
- Flexible outcomes based on the participant's role requirements & building on their existing Initiative of

The training topics include:

- OH&S
- Biosecurity & pest management
- Animal welfare requirements
- Quality assurance & sustainable work practices
- Implement animal health control programs
- Implement and monitor environmentally sustainable work place
- Identify and report unusual disease or plant pest signs
- Carry out post-mortem examination
- Monitor livestock production growing environments
- Clean and fumigate sheds intensive production systems

Delivery Structure

The course is delivered over 15 months via 26 compulsory 2 hour webinars and 11 non-compulsory online tutorials sessions. Assessment are completed by contextualised relevant workplace projects, third party reports and workplace farm assessment. Students can enrol and commence at any point throughout the year.

This is a nationally recognized qualification and training is delivered with Victorian and Commonwealth government funding for eligible individuals.

Contact Robyn for more information

rrichards@4upskilling.com.au
www.4upskilling.com.au

0407 358 191

14 Binney Street
Euroa, Vic, 3666